SUMMARY.

Tremendous enthusiasm is manifested in liberal circles at the magnitude of the result which the Liberals have attained in the recent elections.

Mr. Balfour states he hopes that the revolutionary promises by the Liberals will be used for the welfare of the country was seriously imperilled.

The ex-Premier spoke feelingly in his defence of the Liberals of Warwick and his party of 20 years' representation.

Nationalists at Dublin are jubilant at the defeat of Mr. Balfour.

Mr. J. E. Redmond states that the present Government is friendly to Ireland so far as economy and professions went.

Mr. H. Gladstone, the Home Secretary, has strongly appealed for large contributions to enable the police to be forced through the House of Lords if this House resisted.

Mr. Horridge, who defeated Mr. Balfour, attributes the victory, besides defeat, the strong and growing feeling in connection with the Trades Disputes Bill, Chinese labour, &c.

It is determined to resist any endeavour to increase the price of food.

At Peterborough a mob of 2000 people rushed Mr. Purvis, Unionist candidate, and rolled him in the mud.

Mr. Purvis was rescued by the police, and when he was being escorted away missiles and mud were thrown at him.

Mr. H. P. Lowe, Unionist, has stated that his victory for Dartington was the first victory for a prominent supporter of fiscal reform.

At a Liberal meeting in Wales a panic was created by the exposure of a secret carried out by the organiser of the Liberal party.

The organiser escaped.

Labour and socialist candidates polled heavily in electorates where they were defeated.

GENERAL ELECTION.

UNIONIST DEBACLE SIGNALISED

MR. BALFOUR'S DEFEAT.

PEOPLE LOATHE CHINESE LABOUR

FREE TRADE THE GREATEST FACTOR.

LIBERALS' ENTHUSIASM.

MAGNIFICENT MAJORITY.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

knowing his return, said that it was the first victory for a prominent supporter of fiscal reform.

Mr. A. J. Balfour and Mr. Chamberlain telephoned to him their hearty congratulations.

UNIONIST MALTREATED.

ROLLED IN THE MUD.

After a Unionist meeting at Peterborough, a mob of 2000 people pushed Mr. Robert Purvis, the Unionist candidate, and rolled him in the mud. The police rescued him, but as he was being escorted away missiles and mud were again thrown at him.

A further discovery of a concealed store of bombs and explosives has been made at Riga.

FREE TRADE FOR THE STEEL TRADE.

RUSSIA'S DEFICIT.

FORTY-EIGHT MILLIONS STEERLING.

GENERAL HOGIS HOME-COMING.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

Owing to a deficit of £48,000,000 in the Russian Budget for 1905, due to an increase of expenditure, the estimate of expenditure of Russia for 1906 is £52,000,000 above the expenditure of 1905.

DYNAMITE OUTRAGE.

THE RAND CHINESE.

STORIES OF ILL-TREATMENT DENIED.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

Two hundred and thirty-five white employees of the Nourse Deep Gold-mining Company, Johannesburg, have protested against the reports of ill-treatment of Chinese miners in England as baseless.

The photograph of a supposed sufferer, they state, was arranged by a former Chinese compound manager who was dismissed with his salary.

HONOURS FOR JAPANESE.

ORDER OF MERIT.

LONDON, Jan. 14.

Prince Arthur of Connaught, who is en route to Japan conveying the Order of the Garter for the Emperor, is also the bearer of the Order of Merit for Field-Marshal Okuma, Admiral Togo, and Field-Marshal Yamagata.

THE ELECTORAL HURLY-BURLY.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL APPOINTMENTS.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

Mr. Horridge, the member-elect for Manchester East, attributes his victory, besides his advocacy of free-trade, to a strong and growing feeling in connection with the trade disputes bill, which was emanated by the Conservatives in Grand Committee, to the late Government permitting the employment of Chinese labour on the Railways, and to its failure to deal adequately with the miners.

His constituents, Mr. Horridge said, looked to Chinese labour, because of its unfair competition with British labour. As regards free-trade, he is determined to regard any endeavour to increase the price of food.

THE IRISH JUBILANT.

REMEMBER MITCHELSTOWN.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

Nationalists at Dublin are jubilant at the defeat of Mr. Balfour for Manchester East.

Mr. O'Callaghan, national secretary, and Mr. Fitzpatrick, national treasurer, and other members of the United Irish League at Boston, U.S.A., have cabled to Mr. John Redmond, the leader of the Nationalists in Ireland: "Members of the United Irish League rejoice that Mr. Balfour has met his Waterloo. Manchester remembers Mitchelstown, and so does America."

LIBERAL-LABOUR SUCCESS.

CAUSES EXPLAINED.

FREE TRADE AND SOCIAL REFORM.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

Tremendous enthusiasm is manifested in Liberal circles in Birmingham, Bristol, Glasgow, and other centres at the announcement of the majorities which the Liberals have obtained.

Mr. Byford, the representative of labour, who has been elected for Salford North in succession to a Conservative, attributed his success firstly to insisting that bread should not be taxed, and secondly, to his advocacy of land and labour reforms, and to his firmness for Home Rule.

Mr. Priestley, the successful candidate for Bradford East, previously represented by a Conservative, says that his victory shows that the people will not have their bread taxed.

Mr. Mallet, one of the elected Liberals for Parliament, whose representatives in the last Parliament were Conservatives, attributes his success to his opposition to the education policy of the Conservatives, to his advocacy of free-trade, and to his opposition to Chinese labour.

TUMULTUOUS DEMONSTRATIONS.

LABOUR'S HEAVY POLLING.

LONDON, Jan. 14.

There were in Fleet-street and the Kingsway on Saturday evening large crowds, who shouted and cheered as the results of the general election became known. The results were announced by flashlights and dynamical devices.

The Labour candidates and the Socialists polled heavily, even in constituencies where they were not returned.

IRELAND'S ASPIRATIONS.

ACTION BETTER THAN SYMPATHY.

LONDON, Jan. 14.

Mr. J. E. Redmond, in the course of a speech at Waterford, said that the present Government was friendly to Ireland, as far as sympathy and professions went; it would be his and his colleagues' duty to see that the benefit to Ireland was not confined to sympathy and goodwill, but to action.

The "Observer" says that Saturday's polling signifies a debacle for the Unionists. It is evident that the country is for free trade as against Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.

The Labour candidates and the Socialists polled heavily, even in constituencies where they were not returned.

TARIFF REFORMER'S VICTORY.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM MR. BALFOUR.

LONDON, Jan. 15.

Mr. Herbert Gladstone, the Home Secretary, addressing a meeting at West Leeds, whose constituency he is contesting, strongly appealed for large majorities for the promotion of measures for the benefit of the country, and to enable the Liberal cause to be forced through the House of Commons if that House resisted.
